

SCHOOL BOARDS URGE UNIFORM ASSESSMENTS

First Senior Class of L-W Makes Gift to School in Form of Bust of Lincoln

A bust of Abraham Lincoln is to grace a class enclosed case in the main foyer of Lincoln-Way high school as the gift of the senior class.

Lincoln-Way high is new. It opened its doors last September and the seniors this year were the first to be graduated. Thus in making a parting gift to the school this year's seniors established a precedent instead of following tradition.

And as Supt. A. Hunter Chapman points out, the first gift chosen for the school is most appropriate. The highway along which the school stands is the Lincoln Highway, and it is from this source that the institution has taken its name—Lincoln-Way. The Lincoln highway, of course, is named after the great President of the Civil War period, so it is quite fitting that the school should have a statue of him.

The bust chosen is of half life size. It is the work of Carl Tolpo formerly of Chicago, who for the past few years has had his home and studio at Lincoln highway and River road in Lincoln Estates. Mr. Tolpo was a pupil of Gutzum Borglum and helped that master in carving of the presidential group at Mt. Rushmore in the Black Hills.

Like Bronze

The bust to be installed at the school is a bearded Lincoln, as he appeared in the last year of his life according to the photographs and the masks studied by the artist. The statue that the school is to have is of stone plaster-as hard as marble Tolpo says—and tinted so that it appears to be of bronze.

The same bust, only cast in bronze, has been purchased by the state of Illinois for its historical library at Springfield. The bronze bust cost the state $750, which was considerably more than the senior class had to spend. The bust purchased for the school cost approximately $250.

It will be about three weeks before the statue will be delivered.

Lions At New Lenox Plan Annual Festival

The New Lenox Lions club is to have its sixth annual festival next month, July 22 and 23. The affair will be held in the Lions Den at New Lenox.

There will be rides and other attractions for the youngsters and various games and other amusements for adults. Many prizes are to be awarded according to the committee in charge.

REVIEW BOARD BEGINS WORK

The Will county board of review is now in session and will receive complaints relative to tax assessments thru Aug. 1.

The board meets on the second floor of the court house and is in session daily—9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday thru Friday and from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturdays.

Persons who believe the assessed valuations placed on their property, real or personal, by the assessors may file protests with the review board and will be given a hearing.

The board of review, however, has more to do than hear complaints on valuations. The board goes over the books of all the assessors in the county. If it finds valuations are low it can raise them or if too high the board can lower them.

Normally the board completes its work by December. It is after the board of review is finished with the assessors books that County Clerk Joseph Hartley gets them to establish tax rates.

The chairman of the board of review is Meade Baltz, chairman of the board of supervisors. The chairman of the county board automatically becomes chairman of the review board. Counting the chairman there are two other members, Tillman Woodhouse and Mrs. E. L. Marron, both of Joliet. They were appointed to the board for two year terms by County Judge John C. Cowing. The board chooses its clerks each year and there was no change—James G. Blood and Mrs. Blanche Sykes having been reappointed when the board held its first session on Monday of this week.

More than 1,700 sheep and 600 cattle are fed each year at the Dixon Springs Experiment Station of the University of Illinois.

Frankfort Buys Radio For Police; Has State Hook-Up

The village board of Frankfort has purchased radio equipment for the police car, driven by Chief John Pease. The equipment cost $350 and the installation charge will be approximately $40.

Installation of this set will give Frankfort police direct connection with state police. It is a 2-way system, of course, by means of which Frankfort police can talk with state police headquarters of the Joliet district.

Frankfort police, however, will be unable to communicate with the sheriff's office by radio as the county's system is on a different frequency. The sheriff's squads will be able to hear state police headquarters talk to Frankfort but will not be able to hear anything from Frankfort. Plainfield police have a similar radio hook up with state police.

3 Cousins Baptized By Grand-Uncle

Three infant cousins were baptized last Sunday by their grand-uncle, the Rev. Henry M. Battenthouse of Lakeland, Fla., who preached at the Green Garden Methodist church that morning.

The baptisms took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bettenhausen of Green Garden. One of the children was their daughter, Elizabeth Marie, and her sponsors were Mrs. Walter E. Deuchler Sr., and Mrs. William C. Bettenhausen, Sr.

The other youngsters are Gene Richard Bass, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bass of Bourbonnais, who had Harold Stuart for his sponsor, and William Charles Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stuart of Manteno. His sponsor was Carlyle Weber.

The Rev. Mr. Battenthouse is a native of Green Garden and is said to have been the first child baptized in the Green Garden Methodist church, an event that took place almost 70 years ago.

STATE SCHOOL OFFICIAL PRAISES VOCATIONAL AG. COURSE AT L-W

A letter praising the agricultural course given at Lincoln-Way high school has been received by Supt. A. Hunter Chapman from H. F. Engelking, supervisor of Vocational agriculture for Illinois, following a visit to the school last month.

Mr. Engelking's letter follows: "I was certainly impressed by your new high school. The large, spacious grounds and the architectural design of your building make it a most attractive school. During the noon hour the courteous manner of some of your students were noted. They went out of their way to help me."

"In my opinion, you and your board made a wise decision in hiring Mr. Robert R. Van Rheeden as your teacher of vocational agriculture. He is a mellifluous teacher of wide intellectual horizons who inspires and enthuses his students to the extent that students are motivated to learn by doing. One example of this motivation is the type of supervised farming programs that your students enrolled in vocational agriculture are developing. Your students have on the average of approximately two productive projects per student. This is above the average in the state, which is approximately 1.6 productive projects per student. The project chart on the wall in the agriculture classroom certainly is one means of encouraging sound supervised farming programs."

Valuable Program

"The members of your FFA are receiving valuable leadership training through their FFA work. They have made out a program of work for the year and have participated in such leadership activities as public speaking and parliamentary procedure. It is hoped that some of your members will strive for such advanced degrees in the FFA as the State and American Farmer."

"In my opinion, the school land that your vocational agriculture students are farming has the possibility of providing an excellent learning-by-doing facility. I would like to point out,

BANDITS BEAT MOKENA WOMAN

A Mokena woman was beaten and robbed last week by two teen age bandits when she stopped for a traffic light at Crawford ave. and the Southwest highway.

The victim was Mrs. James Andrea. The Andreas operate Doty's Lounge on Wolf road. The robbery took place as Mrs. Andrea was enroute home. It was after 9 o'clock and almost dark. As she brought the car to a halt for a traffic light two youths stepped alongside, into the car and ordered her to drive on. They had proceeded a short distance when they had to halt for traffic. Mrs. Andrea slipped the keys out of the ignition lock and concealed them.

When she refused to yield the keys the bandits dragged her out of the car and beat her. Apparently some motorist turned in an alarm and a police squad arrived within minutes.

The young thugs saw the squad approaching and fled across the fields, eluding capture. They had robbed Mrs. Andrea of approximately $20. She was severely bruised by the beating.

Fred Block, 78, Life Resident Of Frankfort, Dies

Fred Block, 78, life long resident of Frankfort township, died of a sudden illness Sunday in the home of his sister, Mrs. Augusta Wisshover in Frankfort.

Born in Frankfort township, he was the son of the late Frederick and Elizabeth Block. He never married. He was employed on various farms during his active years.

Survived by his sister with whom he made his home for the past 11 years; also three nieces and a nephew.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in the West End Funeral home in Chicago Heights, with the Rev. Erich Bizer officiating. Interment was in St. Peter's cemetery in Green Garden.

however, before building up too many sanguine predictions, that many school farms in the past have failed. This failure has been mainly due to inadequate planning with the result that the vocational agriculture teacher did most of the work. Students should do the work because it is by this means that learning by doing is interwoven into the warp and woof of participatory experiences and transfer of knowledge becomes a permanent part of the student's life rather than something to be retained until after examinations are taken and passed. Your school farm will provide an excellent opportunity to teach such things as soil and water management with emphasis upon contour farming, grass waterways, crop rotations and correct and adequate use of fertilizers.

Makes Suggestions

"Regarding the equipment in the farm shop, I might say that I was very favorably impressed by the new type chairs and tables in the agriculture classroom. This is the first time I had ever seen this type of chairs and they appear very satisfactory. Your laboratory is very well equipped for soil and milk testing. The germinator and moisture tester will prove very valuable in connection with the study of crops. The addition of an exhaust fan and a power hack saw would improve the equipment available for farm mechanics instruction. It would improve the appearance of the classroom to paint the walls and put in an asphalt tile or cork floor. It is hoped that you will be able to construct a building for the storage and servicing of the school busses. Busses should not be serviced in the farm shop any longer than exigence requires it."

"I thank you and Mr. Van Rheeden for every courtesy extended me during my recent visit. It was a pleasure to visit your school and to observe the good work Mr. VanRheeden is doing as your vocational agriculture instructor."

Centennial Garb Gets 3 Frankfort Couples on Network

Three Frankfort couples that attended the WLS barn dance at the 805 Street theater last Saturday night attracted more attention that the cast and almost stopped the show. The Frankfort people were dressed in their centennial costumes and of course the men were whiskered. Had they gone on stage probably no one would have paid them any heed but when they took places in the audience the announcer on the show sat up and took notice. When he found out where they were from and why they were dressed as they were, he broadcast a description of them and gave the Frankfort centennial a nice plug . . . not just once but twice and on a national hook-up. The three couples thus brought the name of Frankfort to the nation were, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Harnack, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Heusing and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gay.

Each week one of these questions will be published in the News-Bulletin. This is the first one:

"Who laid out the town of Mokena and when?"

The first person to telephone the correct answer to Marcella Lehman, publicity chairman for the homecoming, will receive one dollar. Next week the answer will be published - and another question given.

These questions are all based on information to be found in a little paper-covered history of Mokena that was written in 1945 by Norma L. Browning, former staff member of the Chicago Tribune who has been touring and writing about the South Sea islands for the past several months.

If the committee finds enough demand for the booklet it plans to have it reprinted and placed on sale at the main booth at the homecoming. The committee would like some public expression on this, according to Mrs. Lehman.

The first Mokena homecoming was held in 1938. At that time the population of the village and its environs was around 500. Now the territory has approximately 1,400 residents.

The committee in charge is working hard to make this year's homecoming even more fun and more interesting than those that have gone before.

The discussion was centered round six topics. These topics and the chairman in charge of each, were: 1. What should the schools teach? - Earl H. Dieken. 2. Should the county superintendent's office be enlarged and given greater authority and responsibility? - Thomas Powers. 3. School building needs - John Oster. 4. Salary levels and methods for raising more interest in adopting teaching as a career - Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel. 5. Taxes - A. H. Krumacker. 6. P. T. A. and public relations in general - Mrs. Barnett.

Serving as recorders of the discourse on the various topics were, Mrs. Herbert Folkers, Mrs. Fred Lehmann, Mrs. Jane Anderson, Ralph Wright, Stanley Gilmore and Mrs. George Krehler.

In discussing what the schools should teach it was agreed that prime objectives were to develop moral character, belief in and practice of democratic principles, how to get along well with others and to take an active part in civic and community activities.

Relative to the second topic - the enlargement of the county superintendent's authority and responsibility - it was brought out that the average small town administrators - because of their multiple duties - would welcome such aid.

School building needs, the third topic, brought on a general discussion of present and future needs in this area. Mr. Oster, the superintendent at New Lenox, pointed out future enrollment trends in this area as well as those for the entire state.

From the statistics given it was evident that considerable additional building would be required in the next 10 years.

Teachers salaries came in for discussion along with such things as what duties other than teaching should be required of teachers and what is the teacher's role in community activities. There is a growing need for teachers, it was brought out, and how to interest more students in electing teaching as careers is a problem to be met.

Good salaries are essential, it was agreed, if schools are to get good teachers and keep them. Schools at all levels should encourage good candidates for the teaching profession, it was said, and also that teachers should take part in community affairs.

The tax question provoked quite a bit of discussion. Costs of operating the schools, like other costs, are advancing, it was said, and the need for additional capital expenditures to erect new buildings or expand present ones presents more problems. Opinions were expressed at the conference that an income tax, equitably set up, might be a solution.

The last topic dealt with public relations. The Parent Teachers organization accomplishes a great deal in acquainting the public with school affairs and school needs but some doubt this is adequate.

There is not much interest in school affairs at board meetings.

The "Little White House conference" plan is being followed through the nation so that when

QUIZ TO SPARK INTEREST IN HOMECOMING

A quiz is being operated this year in connection with the 15th annual Mokena homecoming to be held Aug. 19-21. To stimulate interest in Mokena's history among the newcomers and to give the old-timers an opportunity to reminisce, the committee in charge has prepared a series of questions dealing with the community's past.

Each week one of these questions will be published in the News-Bulletin. This is the first one:

"Who laid out the town of Mokena and when?"

NEW LENOX BOY APPEARS ON TV

Eight year old David Cooper of New Lenox has done something this vacation that few boys of his age have an opportunity to do—he appeared on TV—and on a national hookup at that. David was traveling thru the east with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Cooper and a brother and sister.

The family was waiting to get seats for the "On Your Account" show starring Dennis James, when someone connected with the show came into the lobby and selected David.

Those in New Lenox and the rest of the area that saw the show on last week were agreed that David handled the assignment very well. He appeared calm and unconcerned and volunteered the answer to the first question asked—On Your Account being a quiz program. First prize was a pup. David missed that but received a fine chemistry set for finishing second. On Your Account is broadcast from New York.

SANE AND SAFE DRIVING CAN CUT HOLIDAY DEATHS, EXPERTS SAY

The question—what is the death rate in this country—may be answered in your own speedometer, it was pointed out by local, state and national authorities who are endeavoring to impress upon the motoring public the need for safe and sane driving.

Sheriff Roy Doerfler and Coroner Willard G. Blood call attention to the fact that next week will be another with a holiday period that will take a fearful toll unless automobile drivers use care and caution.

The National Safety council is coordinating a nationwide campaign aimed at reducing traffic accidents over the Fourth of July week end. One hundred and 60 national organizations are participating in the campaign.

State police of this district as well as county authorities are hopeful that this area will be as free of fatalities as it was over the Memorial day week end. The 3-day holiday over Memorial day took 368 lives in the nation, a record number of traffic deaths. And on top of that several thousand and persons were hospitalized as a result of injuries received in highway crashes. Some of these injured will be laid up for months with resultant financial loss as well as suffering.

So Unnecessary

Practically all of these accidents could have been avoided had the drivers used care and driven safely. Speed rates as the No. 1 cause for fatal accidents. Liquor and fatigue also reckon in adding up the causes, according to authorities. And rudeness and selfish behavior also play a part in the cause of accidents, it was stated.

CORNERSTONE RITES HELD AT ST. MARY'S

More than 100 persons were present Sunday at the cornerstone laying ceremonies for Mokena's new St. Mary's church which is under construction at 195th street and 115th ave.

Construction is progressing rapidly and it was expected that the roof for the church and for the school would be in place by the end of the week. Father Pius Barth, Franciscan Provincial of St. Louis Province, officiated at the cornerstone laying. Assisting in the ceremony were Father Mark Hegener of St. Augustine church, Chicago; Father Gervais Brinkman, chaplain of the Illinois penitentiary; Father Benedict Pfeifer, St. John's monastery of Joliet, Father Dennis Hall of New Lenox and the pastor of St. Mary's, Father Cecil Koop.

Sealed in the stone was a copper box containing various documents and papers. There was a short history of the parish included and documents bearing the name of Pope Pius and of the Bishop of Joliet. — Martin D. McNamara. — There was a list of the trustees of St. Mary's parish and the officers of the Holy Name society, the Sacred Heart League and the Teen club. There was a list enclosed of the names of the teachers of the school; the members of the building fund committee and a copy of The News-Bulletin published last December 2, which carried a picture of the architect's drawing of new St. Mary's.

According to Father Koop the church and school should be ready for use next fall. They will be dedicated following completion.

Gives Duplicate Prizes In Contest

The name-the-stand contest conducted by George Tate who has an ice cream business at the southwest corner of the intersection of Routes 30 and 45, has ended in a tie.

The winning name, "Tate's Kool-Korner" was suggested by two persons, Mrs. Wayne DePorto, of Frankfort, and J. David Andrews of Mattoon, Ill. With two winners Mrs. Tate will duplicate the prizes, 10 gallons of ice cream.

More than 300 persons sent in names in response to Mr. Tate's request for suggestions which ran in The News-Bulletin.

A joint meeting of assessors and school board members of Frankfort, New Lenox and Manhattan townships to discuss property assessments is scheduled for tonight, Thursday at Lincoln-Way high school.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss means and methods to achieve uniformity in assessments. There is too much variation in assessments now, school board members complain, with the result that some districts get more than others on the same kind of property.

The Lincoln-Way high school district is made up of all of New Lenox and Frankfort townships and a portion of Manhattan township. There are numerous elementary school districts in this territory.

Income Insufficient

Most school districts, here as well as elsewhere, find that the increase in enrollments plus the increase in salaries and cost of supplies have outstripped their revenues. More money is needed, it was pointed out, and it was added, there are two ways of getting it:

1. By increased valuations, or

2. By increased tax rates.

In the Lincoln-Way high school district, for instance, there was not sufficient money paid in on the bond levy last year to pay the interest on the building bonds. To build the school, which was opened to classes last September, it was necessary to issue bonds in the amount of $1,200,000. This issue was approved by the voters of the district. The bonds are to be paid off in 19 years. As of now the payments on principle amount to $50,000 a year. The interest is in addition to that. The levy last year for bonds and interest was $79,690 but not all of it was paid in. There is always a delinquency in tax payments.

Lacked $2,000

The result was that the district lacked approximately $2,000 on its bond fund to meet interest payments and had to draw from its regular building fund account to meet it. Fortunately the building is new and maintenance costs are still comparatively low, altho it is surprising how much maintenance and repairs are required in new buildings as private owners as well as school boards and other taxing bodies that have built them will testify. But the board should not have to meet interest payments out of building fund money, it was pointed out.

Lincoln-Way district has a valuation of $27,452,000 for tax purposes. Its tax rate is 71 cents per $100 assessed valuation. It is quite probable, it is reported, that the board will have to call a referendum for a proposed rate increase to provide needed revenue. The next step would authorize a rate up to 90 cents. When such a referendum will be held has not been disclosed but the board will not make such a request, it was explained until it is necessary.

The meeting at which the tax situation is to be discussed tonight is scheduled for 9 o'clock.

At 8 o'clock tonight the Lincoln-Way board will meet with representatives of the four banks in the district - at Frankfort, Mokena, New Lenox and Manhattan - to discuss the allocation of school deposits among those institutions.

CHARTER BUS TO ORDINATION

Ordination services will be held at Elgin tomorrow night as part of the Rock River Conference and a large delegation is expected to attend from Mokena and New Lenox. A special bus is to leave New Lenox at 5:45 and persons desiring to make reservations may contact Mrs. Willard Savers.

Local interest in the event is centered on the fact that two of those to be ordained are from this area. The Rev. Ralph Miller, one of those to be ordained, has been pastor of the New Lenox Methodist church for the past 10 years. He received his degree of bachelor of divinity at the Garrett Biblical Institute in Evanston last week.

The other is the Rev. E. Dale Kleinschmidt of the Mokena Methodist church. He is to be ordained a deacon and still has school ahead before graduation. The ordination service is to be held in the First Methodist church at Elgin and is to begin at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited.

Brandriff - Keck Nuptials Held In Tinley Church

Enroute to Black Hills, S. D. and Denver, Colo., are Dr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Keck who exchanged nuptial vows June 11 at a 4 p.m. ceremony in Tinley Park Methodist Church.

The bride, Patricia L. Brandriff is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Brandriff of 68th st. and Harlem ave., Tinley Park. Mr. and Mrs. August Keck of Mercer, North Dakota are parents of the bridegroom. The Rev. Kenneth Hilderbrand, D.D. of Central Church in Chicago officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The altar was banked with white gladioli, daisy and chrysanthemum, with nylon bows of aqua and white on the designated pews.

The organist, Miss Alice Ginter, also accompanied E. B. Campbell, soloist who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white satin gown with nylon tulle and imported Chantille lace overlay. A Juliet cap of lace held the finger-tip veil. The bride carried a bouquet of White Amazon lilies with a white orchid center. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearl ear rings, a gift of the groom.

Miss Dolores Doyle of Midlothian was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of aqua and white taffeta. Her picture hat of aqua, combined with a bouquet of yellow daisy and aqua center of carnations completed the costume.

Dressed exactly like the maid of honor were the bridesmaids, Miss Annaleise Hill and Miss Maureen Lyons of Chicago. The tiny flower-girl, Marti Tomlin of Chicago wore aqua taffeta with nylon tulle, and carried a basket of yellow and white rose petals, while the ring-bearer, Rickey Hollwedel proudly carried the white satin pillow.

Dr. B. F. Knipschild of Chicago was best man. The guests were seated by Jack Slickemeyer and Richard Schuler also of Chicago.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brandriff chose a gown of teal taffeta, street length with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a street-length gown of navy blue with pink accessories. Both wore white orchids for their corsage. Large double wedding rings in aqua stands decorated the tables at the Methodist church social hall where guests were served following the wedding. A 4-tier wedding cake and candles centered the bride's table. The gift table was artfully done with a bride mannequin in attendance to receive the many lovely gifts. The Miriam circle of the church prepared and served the guests with Mrs. Harry Schmidt doing the decorations.

The bride is a registered nurse, having graduated from Columbus hospital in Chicago in 1954. Her husband, Dr. Keck will begin duties as house staff physician at Charles T. Miller hospital in St. Paul, Minn., and it is in this city they will make their home upon return from their wedding trip.

"Like Sucking Milk Through a Straw!"

That's what you'll say, too, when you use ZERO's Super Strainer and T-20 Vacuum Refrigerated Milk Tank. For successful dairy farmers everywhere are buying Zero's T-20 Milk Tank and Super Strainer, like Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frohling, Hampshire, Ill. Their son, David Frohling, shown here, is only 10 years old... yet he's big enough to help with the milking. Naturally he can't lift the pail high enough to pour milk into any cooler, but with Zero's Super Strainer, handling the milk is a snap... "just like sucking milk through a straw."

Mr. Frohling likes his T-20 too because "it's easy to clean and the milk tastes better with rapid cooling." Other smart dairymen choose Zero because of "its better, stronger construction"... "no more lifting or carrying heavy milk cans"... "it's the beginning of my fully automatic milk system." And Zero gives you vacuum refrigerated milk with animal heat and odors removed. See us today!

ALPINE

Mrs. E. Mrosek
Orland 2841-R

The Alpine Girls 4H club made a group tour of the Evergreen Plaza shopping center in Chicago, June 14. Points of special interest to be visited were the Greenhouse, the Singer Sewing Machine company and the Crocyden China shop. The club was given a nice welcome at each place and guides and demonstrators made the tour of real educational value. Mothers who accompanied the club were Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen, leader; Mrs. Henry Felsch, Mrs. Walter Lauffer, Mrs. Owen Maue and Mrs. Edward Mrosek. A member of the Orland Boys 4H club, who was the driver of one of the cars for the trip, found the tour so interesting that he was not at all self conscious at being the only boy among so many girls. Fifteen of Maue's students are being awarded certificates for their record of perfect attendance during this past year. They are: 2nd grade, Billy Blank, Terry Donovan, and James Walker; 3rd grade, John Stellwagen; 4th grade, Pamela Cripps and James Semetis; 5th grade, Richard Cardemon; 6th grade, Duane Erickson; 7th grade, Laurence Lauffer and Patsy Felsch; 8th grade, Tommy Cripps, Reed Williams, Bobby Stellwagen, Larry Semetis and Nancy Pelouquin.

Mrs. Hazel Brown, former teacher of Maue's lower grades has been engaged to teach the first grade of the New Bert Fulton school in Tinley Park next year.

Mrs. Hazel Brown, former teacher of Maue's upper grades does not plan to teach regularly this next year. She will, however, be available for substitute teaching at the continued happiness and success of both teachers, who have been at Maue longer than most of its students are being expressed throughout the community.

Steven, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Koveikis, is a patient in the Inalls Memorial hospital in Havey, suffering from a complete break of a thigh bone the result of a fall from his bike on 171st street. Wednesday afternoon, June 15. Stevey is expected to remain in the hospital three to four weeks. The cast, which extends to his chest, will not be removed for at least six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bukover are proudly engaged in showing his niece, Miss Rose Marie Bukowitz of Marcaribo, South America, the wonders of Chicago and vicinity these days. cago's loop a bit overwhelming. In describing the economic conditions of Marcaribo, she says the wage scale is comparable to that found here but that the cost of living is higher.

The occasion of Miss Bukowitz' visit is a particularly happy one for the Bukovers, who rarely have the pleasure of visiting with their South American relatives. It was 32 years ago, when they left Austria as refugees, that Mr. Bukover and his brother became separated. One went to South America and the other found happiness here. They did not see each other again until last year when Mr. Bukover flew to Marcaribo to visit with his brother and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pelouquin recently entertained 35 relatives neighbors and friends at a party honoring their daughter Nancy and her graduation from Maue school. Nancy and friends of her age were seated at a beautifully arranged table which had as its center of attraction a huge cake cleverly decorated for the occasion. Other tables were provided for the accommodation of adult guests. A good time was had by all and Nancy received many useful gifts.

If children or even husbands are missing these days, they might be found in fields where hay operations are going on or at the Arrowhead, where, it's said, a fish bites once in a while.

A new idea
FOR DECORATIVE FENCES

Come in and
see Patty-O-Panels

Here's a new idea for enclosing a patio, for screening outdoor living areas... for many projects that add beauty and privacy to your home. Patty-O-Panels create a pleasing pattern of vertical slats interwoven with a horizontal strip. Grooved rails hold the slats in position and sturdy end posts form the uprights. Each panel is about 4' high and 8' long. Packaged in compact bundles, Patty-O-Panels are easily assembled... can be stained, painted, or given a natural finish. For complete privacy, install 8' Patty-O-Panel screening sections—double panels, one above the other, to provide a tight fence.

MOKENA SMALL FRY WIN FIRST LEAGUE GAME

Mokena's Small Fry baseball team traveled to Manhattan for its first league game last Monday evening, June 16th and won an easy victory by the score of 17 to 2. Mokena was aided by nine Manhattan errors while Mokena did not commit any errors.

Two more runs were added by the Tinley club in the eighth inning. Don Keuch again walked and "Moose" Nasebandt reached base on the pitcher's error when he threw wildly to second as Moose tried to sacrifice Keuch along. Joe Kwasek came through with a timely single to center to score these two men.

Dolton also came up with an assortment of runs in the game which was nip and tuck all the way. They gave the Tinley rooters a few anxious moments in the last inning when they ran four hits into two runs. It looked as if Tinley was in a bit of trouble, but a timely double play then came to set down the rally.

Tinley will play a double header against Calumet Park on June 26, at Cal Park. A contingent of Tinley rooters is expected to accompany the team. The probable starting time of the first game will be about 12:30.

TINLEY PONIES WIN OPENERS 1ST HOME TILT

The Tinley Park Healy Pony baseball team opened the season June 14, with a 7-0 victory over Peotone nine on ten hits. The game was played at Peotone.

Bob Rodger, Tinley pitcher, held Peotone to three hits and garnered three for four. Teddy Siemsen's triple and Jim Hartman's two singles helped in scoring the opening victory.

On June 17, the Healy ponies traveled to Frankfort for a game under the lights and chalked up their second victory, scoring 11 runs on 10 hits.

Jerry Miller, pitching for Tinley, yielded only one hit while striking out 16, holding Frankfort to one run and scoring four runs himself. Dennis Tattum's home run coupled with the hitting of Rodger, Meyer and Hug, fattened Tinleys score.

Otto Stadel Leases Old Mall Office For Cabinet Shop

Otto Stadel, who has been operating a cabinet making shop at his home in Sunny Acres on 193rd st., has increased his business to the point where he must expand and to this end has leased what formerly served as the office of the Frank Mall Lumber Co., in Mokena.

This building will give Mr. Stadel sufficient room for tools and other equipment necessary in the operation of a wood working shop and there is room there too for expansion and sufficient space for parking. The old sheds that at one time covered lumber are being dismantled.

Mr. Stadel formerly was employed in large cabinet shops in Blue Island and Chicago and worked for years with the idea of opening a shop of his own. His skill in cabinet making can be seen on numerous jobs in the Mokena area, and they also contain another ingredient frequently lacking in today's rush, pride of work.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

How spiritual understanding of the law of God opens the door to individual growth and progress will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday, June 26.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science" include the following from Psalms (19:7): "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple."

The value of understanding this law will also be brought out in passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (128:4-6,14): "The term Science, properly understood, refers only to the laws of God and to His government of the universe, inclusive of man. . . . A knowledge of the Science of being develops the latent abilities and possibilities of man. It extends the atmosphere of thought, giving mortals access to broader and higher realms. It raises the thinker into his native air of insight and perspicacity."

We hope you're planning to spend Friday to Sunday, August 19-21, at the Mokena Homecoming where games and amusements will greet you.

Mokena's mile-long parade at the Homecoming will feature a children's pet parade. Come see us on Sunday, August 21st. You can help select the Mokena Homecoming Queen and boost your organization by buying homecoming tickets—the payoff will be Sunday, Aug. 21.

MOSQUITO HUNTERS TRY TO GET PESTS BEFORE THEY CAN BITE

(Editor's Note: This is the third of a seven-article series written to acquaint the people of this area with the program of the new South Cook County Mosquito Abatement District.)

To bring some relief to the half million residents of south Cook county this summer, the South Cook county mosquito abatement district is focusing its attention on the largest producer of discomfort to the greatest numbers of people, the well-named species, Aedes vexans. The application of insecticides to the known breeding sites of this mosquito while it is in the wiggler stage will absorb much of the time of the field crews from mid-May to September, but some of the more basic work begun in the winter and early spring will continue and this fall and winter these basic activities will be resumed full-scale as men may again be shifted back to this work.

What is meant by "more basic work?" The ultimate success of efficient mosquito abatement depends upon solving the fundamental engineering and biological problems that will lead to the elimination and prevention of as many of the breeding sources for mosquitoes as possible. Attacking adult mosquito populations is beginning at the wrong end of the problem. In the words of Dr. Harold Gray, the dean of mosquito abatement in California, it doesn't make much sense "to produce them wholesale and try to kill them at retail." It is not only far too costly, but it just isn't effective in the long run. Therefore a long range program has been adopted for the South Cook district that will provide the kind of effective abatement program that will minimize the cost as time goes on.

Must Know 'Skeeters
The idea is to change the mosquitoes' environment so that it will be unsuitable for their continued breeding. This calls for a sound knowledge of the natural history of the species found in the district. Much of the information gathered this year will be invaluable to next year's plans and so on with each succeeding

What causes inflation? The simple answer is, "a surplus of dollars and a shortage of goods in the market place." Some people argue that if the surplus dollars are taxed away from the people, inflation will be cured. These same people argue that tax reduction tends to cause inflation. Let us see if they are right.

First, what about heavier taxes as a cure for inflation? Federal taxes were jumped from a total of $5 billion in 1940 to a total of $68 billion in 1953. During that period of heavily increasing federal taxation we had the worst kind of inflation. Did heavier taxes prevent inflation? Of course not! Then, what has taxation to do with inflation? Very little - if anything. Why not? Because whether the taxpayer spends the dollar in the market place or Uncle Sam spends it in the market place, it is the same dollar, and it purchases the same amount of goods.

Secondly, what about tax reduction as a cause of inflation? Last year federal taxes were reduced $7.4 billion, the greatest tax reduction in one year in the history of this nation. What was the result? Not one sign of inflation! The dollar has the same purchasing power today as it had last year and the year before. The dollar today is stabilized! Last year's tax reduction did not cause inflation, because when Uncle Sam cut taxes last year by $7.4 billion - leaving that many more dollars in the hands of the taxpayers to spend - Uncle Sam cut his own expenditures for that year by the same amount. Consequently, there was no increase of dollars in the market place to bid against each other for the goods available. So, no inflation resulted from the tax cut.

Viewing inflation from another angle: In 1948, during the 80th Congress, Uncle Sam took away from the people in taxes $8.4 billion more than he needed and kept it as a surplus instead of spending it. What happened? The inflationary trend was checked because there were $8.4 billion fewer dollars in the market place bidding against each other for the goods available.

It makes no difference whether Uncle Sam spends the dollar or the taxpayer spends it. However, when Uncle Sam spends billions of dollars more than he collects in taxes - credit dollars, borrowed dollars, inflationary dollars - that increases the number of dollars in the market place that bid against each other for the goods available. The result is inflation!

In the last analysis - Uncle Sam's spending policies control and determine the amount of inflation we mortals have to put up with. When Uncle Sam spends fewer dollars than he collects, that causes deflation! When Uncle Sam spends more dollars than he collects, that causes inflation! When Uncle Sam spends the same number of dollars that he collects, conditions in the market place are normal and we have a stabilized dollar.

A balanced budget is very, very important and necessary if we want to prevent inflation.

Public Duty - Lincoln
"If I were to try to read, much less answer, all the attacks made on me, this shop might as well be closed for any other business. I do the very best I know how - the very best I can; and I mean keep doing so until the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me won't amount to anything. If the end brings me out wrong, ten angels swearing I was right would make no difference."

The above motto hangs upon your congressman's office wall. It has been his guide for over 50 years of public service - 30 years as a schoolman, six years as a state senator, and almost 20 years as a congressman.

PLAN FESTIVAL TO GAIN FUNDS FOR SCHOOL

Sunday, July 31, is the date set for the annual festival at the Lt. Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. school for exceptional children in Palos Park. The nuns who operate the school, located at 123rd street and Wolf road, will hold an open house and provide games and amusement for visitors to the school on that day. The festival will climax a fund raising campaign to provide for needed enlargement of the school facilities.

Assisting the school faculty in preparation for the all-day festival are the members of the St. Coletta Guild, organized to aid the school in its work with these children. Earl Rook, 7639 Emerald avenue, is chairman of the guild.

Explains Program

The festival is held each year on the last Sunday of July to acquaint the public with the work of the school which conducts a scientific program designed to advance the religious, moral, mental and physical training of mentally handicapped children.

The school was opened in January of 1949 by the Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi who came to Chicago from Colorado at the invitation of Cardinal Stritch. Sister Mary Inez is the superior. From an humble beginning in a farmhouse and barn, the school has expanded rapidly from its original enrollment of 36 boys to 180. Plans call for an ultimate capacity of 400 boys.

Change Name

In 1952 the building program received a gift from the Kennedy Foundation. In gratitude for the vitally needed funds, the name of the school was changed from the original St. Coletta school to the Lt. Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. school. Lt. Kennedy, a navy flier, lost his life in World War II. The Kennedy gift represented approximately one-third of the cost of the completed school, estimated at $4,000,000.

To complete the design for the final, full development of the school, plans include five additional cottages, a new chapel, school and auditorium, infirmary, convent and administration building.

The only sources of funds to pay off the debts and to provide for the necessary expansion are donations and the proceeds of the forthcoming festival on the school grounds on July 31st, according to Sister Inez.

SMOOTHER GOING... and you'll go more places! The reason? Ford's revolutionary Ball-Joint Front Suspension is better than ever. For '55, springs are tilted back to absorb bumps from the front as well as up and down. You'll find even the smooth roads seem smoother!

Absentees May Cast Wheat Vote By Mail

A wheat producer who will be absent from the county in which he is eligible to vote in the June 25 wheat marketing quota referendum may vote by absentee ballot, according to Roy M. Smith of the agricultural stabilization and conservation committee. Furthermore, eligible wheat growers whose religious belief forbids them voting on the day of the referendum may vote before referendum day.

Wheat growers who will be absent may get a ballot from any convenient Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office before the referendum. In casting the ballot the absentee must sign the ballot and mail it in a sealed envelope to the ASC office in the county in which he is eligible to vote. The envelope must be marked "absentee ballot". The ballot must be received in the County ASC office not later than the time the polls close on June 25.

National Holds Line On Coffee Prices

National Tea Co. coffee buyers, in anticipation of higher markets, prepared for the advance in coffee now taking place. Temporarily, at least, National Food Stores will not advance prices on roasted coffees.

Several food chains announced increased coffee prices this week. "These advances," according to Val S. Bauman, National general merchandising manager, although justified on the basis of replacement costs of green coffee, appear to be of a temporary nature, because there is a surplus of coffee in Brazil which certainly will not move to market if the consumer is again forced to pay higher prices for coffee. National is going to try to wait it out for at least the next few weeks in an effort to fight any further increases in the price of coffee to the consumer.

Reservations For Foundation Farm Camp Show Rise

Boys and girls aged 7 to 11 are rapidly filling up the reservations at Foundation Farm Camp in Palos Park. Located 26 miles southwest of Chicago's loop, on Southwest highway at 127th Street, the camp is well known for its practical emphasis on farm chores, nature, handicrafts and horseback riding. Many parents recommend it as a first camping experience, in preparation for later years at camps in Wisconsin and Michigan.

Each boy and girl is initiated into an Indian tribe the first night of camp at a big council fire, complete with Indian ceremonies and horseback-mounted Indian chiefs. From then on, the camp carries forward the Indian theme through all activities.

Only 12 boys and 12 girls are enrolled for each two-week period. There are six counselors for the camp, all well-trained. The first camp period begins June 26. Other camp starting dates are July 10, July 24 and Aug. 7.

Henry Resigns As Head Of Carl Sandburg High

Dr. Virgil Henry, superintendent of Carl Sandburg high school, has tendered his resignation to the board of education effective June 30.

While Dr. Henry is resigning as a school head he is not retiring from the educational field.

Beginning Aug. 1, he will join Science Research Associates with headquarters at Chicago. He is to serve as assistant to one of the vice presidents, Lee Brown. A major part of Dr. Henry's assignment will be to help plan and conduct educational conferences in many of the large cities throughout the country, but most of his efforts in this phase of his work will be concentrated in the several states in what could be called the Chicago area.

A Difficult Decision

Science Research Associates is an organization that serves as advisors and consultants to schools, especially in matters pertaining to curriculum. It also conducts surveys in the educational vocational guidance field. "In view of the fact that very recently my contract in my present position was renewed with a very fine salary increase, my decision to take this step has been a most difficult one," Dr. Henry said.

"My new position is a great challenge to me," he went on, "and I am hopeful that I shall never regret my decision to make this change even tho it is hard for me to leave Carl Sandburg high school to which I am deeply attached."

Dr. Henry came to Orland Park in 1949 to become superintendent of the Orland high and grade schools.

Is Valuable Man

When Carl Sandburg high school replaced Orland high he became superintendent there. His resignation will be accepted by the board with great regret. Dr. Henry is recognized as an excellent administrator and educator.

Dr. Henry is from southern Illinois, Sumner. He received his bachelor's degree at the University of Illinois, and his doctor's degree at Columbia university in New York City.

He was principal at Williams-ville, Ill., from 1939 to 1942 and then went into the army in which he served for two years in World War II. Following his discharge Dr. Henry became a party of UNRA and was in Western Europe for a year. Upon his return he entered Columbia university and studied there from 1946 to 1949. He came from Columbia to Orland Park.

Dr. Henry will spend July relaxing and resting in preparation for his new work.

It is possible that the Henrys will move to LaGrange soon to make their home altho it is not definite. Mrs. Henry teaches kindergarten at LaGrange.

Young, single lambs born in unsanitary lots or sheds are most likely to get "overeating disease" when they move onto lush, fast-growing spring pasture.

ANNOUNCE MAY MILK PRICES FOR FARMERS

Chicago, June 15 - Dairy farmers will receive $3.36 a hundred for base milk delivered to the Chicago market during the month of May. All milk that was delivered in addition to base milk will be paid an "excess" price of $2.96. These prices are for 3.5 per cent butterfat milk delivered in the 70 mile zone.

The May prices are five cents below April and 18 cents above May of 1954.

The milk prices were announced by the Federal Milk Market Administrator's office in Chicago.

Gain Should Continue

In May, 1954, producers received a "blend" price of $3.05 for all their milk. If a blend price had been paid in May, 1955, it would have been $3.23. This increase of 18 cents over the previous year is the first gain of this sort that the market has experienced in several years.

The outlook for the rest of the year indicates that this increase over last year will continue.

Harry Edwards who heads the marketing department for Pure Milk association said that in May milk production on the Chicago market was down four per cent from last year. In May milk production on the market reached its peak for the year. This peak came almost a week earlier this year than last.

Consume More Milk
Edwards who is responsible for keeping milk markets for over 15,000 dairy farmers in the Chicago area expects milk production will drop off rapidly during the last half of June.

Along with a lower production of milk, Edwards noted a continuing increase in the amount of milk that is consumed. Fluid milk sales in May increased five per cent over a year ago. The milk that is sold in this fluid form brings a premium price to farmers.

The increase in sales and the decrease in milk production has lowered the amount of surplus milk on the market. Most of the extra milk is manufactured into dry powder and butter. It brings a lower price and consequently lowers the farm price. Last year this extra milk reached plant stretching proportions. In May this year the volume of extra milk was down by 15 per cent from the May 1954 volume.

WARNS AGAINST HOLD-UP MEN

Many motorists on the road everyday fall pray to hold-up men. In spite of warning news stories, the list of victims grows longer each day.

Main reason is carelessness, Chas. M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club pointed out today as he warned drivers that it can happen to them unless certain precautions are taken to guard against it.

"Motorists should be aware that they can easily fall victim to robbery," Hayes said, "unless they keep a few rules in mind. Alertness may keep a driver not only from losing money in an auto, but may save his life."

Good Suggestions

1. Pace your driving so that you reach an intersection just about when the light turns green. This eliminates a stop and can easily be done at night when traffic is light.
